

REVIVAL NUGGETS

* Water cannot rise any higher than its source, nor can the mission overseas be any stronger than the supporting church at home. A sick church can never save a dying world. Throughout history, revival at home and missions abroad have always gone together. - J. Herbert Kane, A Concise History of the Christian World Mission

* The Church today needs a revival. There is plenty of missionary sentiment; but little of that practical self-denial and burning zeal which impelled the Moravians to go forth without script or purse, to carry the banner of the Cross to the dark places of the earth.

- Edwin Hodder, The Conquest of the Cross, A Record of Missionary Work throughout the World

* Revivals begin with God's own people; the Holy Spirit touches their heart anew, and gives them new fervor and compassion, and zeal, new light and life, and when He has thus come to you, He next goes forth to the valley of dry bones. Oh, what responsibility this lays on the Church of God! If you grieve Him away from yourselves, or hinder His visit, then the poor perishing world suffers sorely!
- Andrew A. Bonar

* Closet communion needs time for the revelation of God's presence. It is vain to say, 'I have too much work to do to find time.' You must find time or forfeit blessing. God knows how to save for you the time you sacredly keep for communion with Him. - A. T. Pierson

* The world has lost the power to blush over its vice; and the Church has lost her power to weep over it.

He who kneels before God will stand in any situation.

One praying man stands as a majority with God.

Today God is bypassing men – not because they are too ignorant, but because they are too self-sufficient. - Leonard Ravenhill
