INTRODUCTION

In teaching a Samaritan village woman about worship, the Messiah, Y'shua, said:

“But the hour is coming, and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such people to worship Him. God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.” (John 4:23-24)

This is what we need to discover, dear friends - worship in spirit and truth - for the Heavenly Father is seeking worshipers today. He has called each one of us to worship. Indeed, worship is the foremost duty of the “royal priest” - the ministry committed to every believer.

“But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvellous light.” (1 Peter 2:9)

WORSHIP is PRAISE to THE ALMIGHTY

- 1 for WHO HE IS - adoration, love and appreciation
- 2 for WHAT HE HAS DONE - His marvelous works
 - in creation
 - in history
 - in redemption
 - in the individual's life
 - in deliverance.

This is our calling, our ministry, beloved, and we need to learn to express worship. We may be young in the faith, but we read;

“OUT OF THE MOUTH OF INFANTS AND NURSING BABIES YOU HAVE PREPARED PRAISE FOR YOURSELF.” (Matthew 21:16)

It's disappointing that many of us believers, even after years of Christian experience, cannot utter more than two or three sentences of true worship. Some of us can talk and pray at great length, but the actual worship content of our prayers, is minimal.

This booklet is a follow-on from my articles on the Royal Priesthood. It is offered with prayer that these portions will help believers to develop Scripture-based worship expression.

In those articles I encouraged readers to select verses from the Psalms and Revelation, and to use them in their personal and corporate worship. Guided by the Holy Spirit, such Scripture-based worship can become a true expression of love, praise, adoration, and truth - “worship in spirit and truth.”

This booklet has selections of worship verses from the Psalms and Revelation. They have been arranged into 30 portions that may, if desired, be used as daily readings and worship.

These selections are NOT intended to be substitutes for, or an abridged version of, the full psalms. They are arranged to be an aid in developing worship expression.

To truly benefit from this booklet, my reader, I suggest that you make effort to memorize some of the lines or stanzas. Choose some lines from each portion. Underline or highlight them, and then commit them to memory.

Reading these portions again and again, over a period of time, will establish them in your memory; and shortly you will find, I believe, the words coming spontaneously from your lips in worship.

Many believers do not believe in praying “printed prayers.” Actually, a Scripture-based printed prayer, if sincere and read meaningfully, can be of more blessing than prayers that waffle on without much spiritual or Scriptural content. Don’t hesitate to read the Scriptures as worship.

Each of the following 30 portions in this booklet have been arranged into this type of order:

A CALL TO WORSHIP

TESTIMONY OF THE LORD’S GOODNESS

PRAISE OF THE LORD

DIRECT WORDS OF APPRECIATION AND LOVE TO THE LORD

A FINAL BLESSING - BLESS THE LORD.

The Scripture version used in this booklet is the CPV - (Clear Preferred Version). This version is in modern English, and seeks to be true to the early Hebrew and Greek manuscripts. It uses the revealed, sacred Name of the Almighty (wherever it appears in the Hebrew Bible).

The Name is written as YHWH (יהוה) in Hebrew, and as Yahweh in English. Earlier, Christians pronounced the Name as Yehowah or Jehovah, but research over the past century, has led to the accepted current pronunciation of Yah-weh.

Why Do I Emphasize the Name of Yahweh?

For the simple reason - the Bible does! This blessed Name is used 6,855 times in the original (Hebrew) Bible - more than any other name in the Scriptures.

Many mistakenly think the Name of the Almighty is “Lord God.” But “Lord” and “God” are titles, not names! If Yahweh is not His Name, then tell me, what is His Name?

“Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is His Name or His Son’s Name?
Surely you know!” (Proverbs 30:4)

Isn’t Yahweh an Obsolete Name of the Hebrew Deity?

It is the Name of the God of Israel, and it is not obsolete! The God of Israel is indeed the Great Creator, the God of the Universe, and the God of the Church. And He Himself says this is the Name by which He is to be remembered.

The Name was revealed first to Adam and Eve. It was known by Abraham, and later it was revealed anew to Moses at the burning bush:

“And God said to Moses, ‘I AM WHO I AM’; and He said, ‘This is what you shall say to the sons of Israel, “I AM has sent me to you”.’ And God also said to Moses, ‘This shall you say to the sons of Israel, “YHWH, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My Name forever, and this is MY MEMORIAL NAME TO ALL GENERATIONS (by this Name I am to be remembered from generation to generation)”.’ “ (Exodus 3:15)

The Name is connected to the Hebrew verb hayah - “to be, to live” and the “I AM” in the above verses. This suggests the meaning of “Yahweh,” -- “the Eternally-existing One.”

King David and the Biblical writers all knew and used the Name of YHWH, but later, due to a fear of misusing the sacred Name, the Jews ceased to speak the Name. For this reason the exact pronunciation was lost.

It is indeed a holy Name, but God never said, “Don’t speak My Name.” He said, “Do not take My Name in vain.”

The first syllable of the Name, YAH, is used in the Bible as the short form of Yahweh. It is used, for example, with the word hallelu (praise). Hallelu-Yah means, “praise Yah.”

The Jews have traditionally used two substitute words for Yahweh - Adonai (Lord), and HaShem (The Name). Unfortunately most of our English Bible use the substitute word - LORD (4 capital letters) - instead of the Name. There are several English Bibles that have not eliminated the Name.

Many Christians pray, “Glorify Thy Name,” and profess great love for “the Name of the Lord.” But when asked for details of the Name, they shrug their shoulders. It’s a mystery! But the LORD has said:

“My people shall know My Name; therefore in that day they will know that it is ‘I AM’ who is speaking. Yes, it is I!” (Isaiah 52:6)

And King David prayed, “They who know Your Name will put their trust in You; For You, O YHWH, have never forsaken those who seek You.” (Psalm 9:10)

I encourage believers to read the portions aloud. And as it takes time to get used to speaking the Name of Yahweh, I have in most places used the Name along with the usual English substitute:- YAHWEH/THE LORD. Either term can be spoken; or both can be used together - Yahweh the Lord.

In a few places I have used the Hebrew Elohim (God), and Adonai (Master), as both these terms are used so often in the Bible, and they should be part of the Christian’s vocabulary. They are lovely terms.

The reader may be surprised by the number of times the personal Name of Yahweh appears in the Psalms; and even the word “Name.” We have printed the word Name in bold letters to draw attention to its frequency.

Some Christians are confused about the Name. They say it is unfamiliar, and does not mean anything to them.

Sadly, that's because they have not been taught! I was like that some years ago. But now I know my Father's Name, and I love it; it is like "ointment poured forth."

And I pray, my dear reader, that if you do not yet have a love for the Sacred Name, the Holy Spirit will use these worship portions to bless you, and to create within you, a deep appreciation of that highly-exalted Name.

Blessed be the Name of Yahweh!

of all the ends of the earth and distant seas;
who establishes the mountains by His strength, being girded with might; who stills the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the peoples.

They who live in the farthest parts stand in awe of Your signs.
You cause the outgoings of morning and evening - the dawn and sunset - to sing for joy. 65:4-8

 I fear no evil; for You are with me;
 Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
 You prepare a table before me in the face of my enemies;

 And do not forget all of His benefits;
 Who pardons all your iniquities;
 Who heals all your diseases;
 Who redeems your life from destruction;
 Who crowns you with kindness and compassion;
 Who satisfies your desires with good,
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
 He has not dealt with us according to our sins,
 nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

 so great is His loving-kindness for those who stand in awe of Him. 103:2-5, 10-14

His marvels, and the judgments of His mouth,
O seed of Abraham His servant,
O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!
He is YAHWEH our God;
His judgments are in all the earth. 105:4-7

As far as the east is from the west,
so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
As a father has compassion for his children,

He is mindful that we are dust. 103:12-14

Let us go into His dwelling place;
let us worship at His footstool. 132:7

My mouth is filled with Your praise, declaring Your splendour all day long ...
But as for me, I always wait expectantly,
and will praise You more and more.
My mouth tells of Your righteousness and Your salvation all day long;
though I have not measured them.

I come in the strength of THE LORD YAHWEH;

He is our Help and our Shield.
Our heart rejoices in Him,
because we have trusted in His holy Name.
Let Your loving-kindness, O YAHWEH, be upon us,
for we have waited for You. 33:18-22

Of old You founded the earth,
and the heavens are the work of Your hands.
They will perish, but You remain;
and all of them will become old like a garment;
like clothing You will change them,
and they will be changed.
But You are the same, and Your years have no end. 102:25-27

All Your works give thanks to You, O YAHWEH, and Your devout, set-apart people bless You.
They speak of the glory of Your kingdom,
and talk of Your power,

and the glory of the majesty of Your kingdom.
Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and
Your dominion endures through all generations. 145:10-13

for Elohim is my Strong Tower,
the God who shows me loving-kindness. 59:16-17

YAHWEH/THE LORD, Maker of the heavens and earth, blesses you from Zion. 134:1-3

Blessed are those who dwell in Your House;
they are ever praising You ...
For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand outside.
I would rather be a doorkeeper standing at the threshold of the House of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For YAHWEH/THE LORD God is a Sun and Shield;
YAHWEH/THE LORD will give grace and glory;
He withholds no good thing
from those who walk uprightly.
O YAHWEH/THE LORD OF HOSTS,
blessed is the man who trusts in You! 84:4, 10-12

The Right Hand of YAHWEH/THE LORD does valiantly. 118:14-16

We give thanks to You, O God,

Great is YAHWEH/THE LORD; and greatly to be praised,

30 Blessed is Yahweh The Lord !

Let all the kings of the earth give thanks to You,
YAHWEH/THE LORD,
when they hear the words of Your mouth,
and let them sing of the ways of YAHWEH/THE LORD,
for great is the glory of YAHWEH.
For though YAHWEH is exalted, He regards the lowly;
but the haughty He knows from afar. 138:4-6

YAHWEH/THE LORD sustains all who fall, and raises up all who are bowed down.

My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God. 84:2
I waited intently for YAHWEH/THE LORD, and He inclined to me, and heard my cry.
He brought me up out of the pit of destruction,
out of the mud and mire,
and He has set my feet upon a rock.
He has established my footsteps.
He has put a new song in my mouth,
a song of praise to our God.

Many see it and stand in awe,
and trust in YAHWEH/THE LORD.
How blessed is the man who has made YAHWEH/THE LORD his trust, and has not turned to the proud and to those who are following falsehood. 40:1-4

I will remember the works of YAH, for I remember Your wonders of old.
I will also meditate on all Your work,
and talk of Your deeds.
Your way, O God, is holy and set-apart;
what god is great like our God?

You are the God who does wonders;
You have declared Your strength among the peoples.
By Your power You have redeemed Your people,
the sons of Jacob and Joseph. 77:11-15

Praise YAH! Hallelu-YAH!
Praise God in His holy place.
Praise Him in the vast expanse of His power.
Praise Him for His mighty deeds.

Praise Him for His surpassing greatness ...
Let everything that has breath praise YAH.
Praise YAH! Hallelu-YAH! 150:1-2, 6

Blessed is YAHWEH/THE LORD, God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting.
And let all the people say, "Amen."
Praise YAH! Hallelu-YAH! 106:48
